Mongolian horses are very forward moving and responsive and if your experience or ability is not up to managing them, for your own safety you will be put on a lead for some or all of the trek. Please note that, as with all our treks, we will be proceeding into areas where medical coverage is sparse or non-existent and, in the event of an emergency your treatment may be delayed as a result.

Keltic Nomad is not responsible for any injuries sustained whilst on this trek. As you can understand there are risks involved when riding and encountering wild animals. All animals are & can be unpredictable and therefore Keltic Nomad will not be held liable for any injuries or accidents which occur. It is mandatory that all riders have travel insurance which covers horse riding. Any rider which arrives without insurance will be refused. Proof of insurance will be asked for before departing Ulaanbaatar. All monies paid will be forfeited.

A 25% non refundable deposit will be taken at the time of booking to secure your place. All tours have a min capacity number listed at time of booking.
